

University Outcome: Aesthetic
Student Learning Outcomes and Rubric (Revised 4/2014)

Students demonstrate Aesthetic Values when they:

| Student Learning Outcomes for Aesthetic  | Exemplary  | Accomplished   | Developing   | Beginning  |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| Relate how artistic expressions reflect philosophical, religious, and social thought in human communities. | Student exhibits an advanced understanding of how human communities' artistic expressions reflect and also shape philosophical, religious, and social thought. | Student exhibits a basic understanding of how human communities' artistic expressions reflect and also shape philosophical, religious, and social thought. | Student exhibits a basic understanding of how human communities' artistic expressions reflects philosophical, religious, and social thought. | Student exhibits a limited understanding of how human communities' artistic expressions reflects philosophical, religious, and social thought. |
| Recognize major forms of artistic expression in their culture.   | Student is able to identify major forms of artistic expression and exhibits a limited ability to identify their role in their culture.                         | Student exhibits a limited ability to identify major forms of artistic expression and exhibits a limited ability to identify their role in their culture.  | Student is able to identify major forms of artistic expression.  | Student exhibits a limited ability to identify major forms of artistic expression.   |