

University Outcome: Global
Student Learning Outcomes and Assessment Rubric (Rev. 4/14)

Students demonstrate Global Outcomes when they:

Students will be able to:	(3) Advanced	(2) Proficient	(1) Novice	(0) Not evident
Pose critical questions about global issues and articulate arguments from a variety of global perspectives	Students pose critical questions about global issues and can articulate arguments from a variety of global perspectives	Students demonstrate an understanding of a perspective culturally different from their own.	Students demonstrate an awareness that perspectives other than their own exist in other cultures	Students are unable to acknowledge perspectives other than their own.
Identify and evaluate a variety of underlying cultural values that influence the diversity of ethics among cultures/countries	Students demonstrate an ability to identify and evaluate a variety of underlying cultural values that influence the diversity of ethics among cultures/countries	Students are able to identify some of the ethical questions that underlie practices between two cultures/countries.	Students demonstrate curiosity about ethical practices that differ from their own.	Students do not recognize a difference in ethical practices from their own.
Describe and interpret various aspects of other cultures relative to their own culture.	Students demonstrate an ability to describe and interpret various aspects of other cultures relative to their own culture.	Students accurately compare and contrast at least one other culture with their own.	Students recognize that significant differences among cultures exist and demonstrate a curiosity about other cultures	Students are oblivious to significant differences among cultures outside of their own.