Concordia Disability Plan

Provider: Concordia Plan Services administered by Liberty Mutual

Eligibility: Eligible Employees .51 - 1.0 FTE who have enrolled in Concordia Plan Services

Concordia Disability benefit provides financial protection by paying a portion of an employee's income while they are unable to earn full income due to a covered injury, sickness, or pregnancy. The plan does not distinguish between short-term and long-term disability.

Cost: Employer pays the full cost of the contributions for the plan. There is no employee cost

Elimination Period: Before benefits are payable, the employee must be absent from work due to a disability (determined by the claims administrator) for a period of 14 consecutive calendar days, called the "elimination" period.

Benefit Payment: After 14 days of disability the Plan pays 70% of employees' pre-disability compensation

Benefit Reductions: The employee disability benefit payments will be reduced dollar for dollar by any benefits for which the employee is eligible for their disability, such as benefits from Social Security (including dependent benefits), any state disability plan, workers' compensation, etc. Some disabilities may not be covered or may have limited coverage under the Plan as determined by the provider.

Concordia Survivor Plan

Provider: Concordia Plan Services administered by Minnesota Life Insurance

Eligibility: Eligible Employees .51 - 1.0 FTE who have enrolled in Concordia Plan Services

Survivor Benefits: Enrolled active employees and their enrolled dependents will receive a lump sum death benefit.

- Cost: The costs for the CDSP lump-sum death benefits are 100% employer-paid and the employee is not required to provide evidence of insurability (EOI).
- Additional Coverage: Employees may also apply directly to Minnesota Life for supplemental life coverage for themselves and their eligible dependents, at their own expense. EOI requirements will apply for supplemental coverage above guaranteed issue amounts or if the initial eligibility period has ended.

The amount of the death benefit is a multiple of the employees' annual compensation, calculated as follows:

- 2 times annual compensation plus
- 1 times annual compensation for each eligible enrolled dependent child

The total maximum benefit does not exceed 6 times the employee's annual compensation and minimum benefit shall not be less than $20,000.
